GLASGOW'S BEST KEPT SECRET

Versatile event space.

HERITAGE OF TRADES HALL

Built on historic foundations at the very heart of Glasgow, Trades Hall is the proud home of The Trades House of Glasgow. Since its establishment in 1605, it has served as a registered charity (SC040548) and continues to provide invaluable support to the local community.

This spectacular building offers 6 versatile event spaces, suitable for staging events of all styles and sizes, ranging in capacity from 2 to 250.

Event space that aligns with your values and leaves a positive impact.

CATALYST FOR POSITIVE CHANGE

When you choose Trades Hall for your event, you're not just renting a venue; you're making a conscious decision to support ethical practices. A percentage of every booking goes towards charitable causes in Glasgow, demonstrating our dedication to making a positive impact beyond our walls.

At Trades Hall, we implement eco-friendly practices, including energy-efficient lighting, waste reduction, and water conservation, to significantly diminish the event's overall environmental impact.

Make your event purposeful at Trades Hall, where your selection goes beyond convenience — it becomes a testament of ethics and a commitment to giving back.

"ALL ATTENDEES LOVED THE GRAND HALL AND THE WHOLE OF TRADES HALL."

Access & location.

BY CAR

Once you have exited Junction 15 on the M8 onto Castle Street, continue down to High Street, crossing over Duke Street. At the first set of traffic lights, turn right onto Ingram Street. Then, at the second set of lights, turn left onto Glassford Street. You will find the Trades Hall on the right-hand side of the street.

BY TRAIN

Queen Street is the closest train station to Trades Hall. When leaving the station, head towards George Square and cross diagonally over the square, then continue down Frederick Street. Once you reach Ingram Street, turn left at the lights and at the next set of lights, turn right onto Glassford St. Trades Hall's location in the city centre also makes it easily accessible from Central Station. The nearest subway station is St Enoch, and both are approximately a 10-minute walk away.

PARKING

You can enjoy discounted parking at the NCP Glasshouse Car Park. Pay only £7.95 for 24 hours. Simply download the NCP app and enter the promotional code THA6LW in the profile section.
