Confirming it all

Generally we hold your date for seven days. During this time we will prepare a contract and pro-forma invoice, just sign and return the document with the deposit, 50% of the event value, and everything is definite, again we ask you to do this within seven days please.

Closer to your event we will meet to go through all the details, put together a schedule for the celebration and prepare your final invoice for payment two weeks before the event date. We will process a refund after the event should it not be used, or please settle anything over and above this on departure.

On the day your event will be managed by our experienced operations team.
