somebody to love you.

Brendan Behan

Richard Corrigan

Growing up on a farm in Co. Meath, Ireland, Richard Corrigan has gone on to lead an illustrious career spanning over 30 years in the hospitality industry. During this time, he has been a key pioneer of seasonal, sustainable eating, supporting independent, local suppliers, influenced heavily by his farming roots.

After spending four years cooking in the Netherlands, he went on to win his first Michelin star at Stephen Bull's Fulham Road, before opening the acclaimed Michelin-starred Lindsay House in 1997.

In 2005, he purchased and refurbished Bentley's Oyster Bar and Grill, bringing it back to its former glory, before going on to open Corrigan's Mayfair in 2008. His next venture was very close to his heart, the Irish country estate Virginia Park Lodge, the very venue where he married his wife Maria.

Since 2013, Richard has been refurbishing the 100-acre estate, planting an orchard, and developing a kitchen garden.

Though these venues vary, you will find a common underlining element in all of their offerings. Namely, Richard's passion for proper, unfussy food that sings the praise of the produce, with not a crumb (or claw) wasted.
