QUEENIE WATTS

Hawksmoor Wood Wharf takes inspiration from our first international launch in New York and from the Golden Age of Travel: the glamour of Hawksmoor in Manhattan, with a little high-end ocean liner mixed in. A stone's throw from Canary Wharf station, the ground floor restaurant has a dramatic, double-height dining space featuring a marble-topped bar and vibrant green leather banquette seating, all elegantly lit by bespoke chandeliers.

Seating up to 20 people, our private dining room is named after local legend Queenie Watts. Back in the early sixties rowdy dockers, gangsters (the Krays and more), celebrities and thrill-seeking high society flocked to see Queenie – singer, songwriter, actor and self-confessed bawdy landlady (think Peggy Mitchell meets Joni Mitchell) – and she welcomed them all. “I just love people. People are life, aren't they?” Pictures of Queenie adorn the walls and while it may not be quite in keeping with her boozier, the long-gone Iron Bridge Tavern, we hope she would approve.

SHARING MENUS

We have designed special sharing menus which offer a range of classic Hawksmoor dishes and our dictionary-thick steaks.

There are a selection of menus to choose from, all served family-style - with the steaks cooked to order, sliced and served in cast-iron skillet with our legendary sides and sauces. Large sharing puddings complete the feast.

All menus can be accompanied by matched wines selected by our expert team. We can also create a bespoke cocktail menu for your event.

We can cater for vegetarians or any other dietary requirements that you or your guests may have.
