

DISHOOM

FROM BOMBAY WITH LOVE

THE OLD IRANI CAFÉS HAVE ALMOST DISAPPEARED. Their faded elegance welcomed all: courting couples, taxi-wallas, students, artists and lawyers. These cafés broke down barriers by bringing people together over food and drink. Bombay was more open and welcoming for their existence. Dishoom pays homage to the Irani cafés and the food of all Bombay.

AT LUNCH, AND LATER

Satisfyingly agreeable dishes for lunch, or perhaps part of a feast to share at supper-time.

This means the children are undistracted by hunger, and ready to learn.

An optional service charge of 12.5% will be added to your bill. Every penny of this goes to the team. (Service charge is entirely optional. If you feel the service is in any way lacking, you need only ask, and the charge will be removed.)

1970s BOMBAY

BOMBAY IN THE '70S WAS BY NO MEANS A GLAMOROUS OR wealthy place. However, on the Stock Exchange on Dalal Street, large fortunes were being made (and lost) in business both clean and shady. As ever in Bombay, there was a glitzy scene in which financiers and industrialists on the make mixed with actors and actresses, with the fancy and beautiful. This restaurant, its modernist design and its artwork are a tribute to that fast scene and Bombay's bustling financial spirit. With thanks to Chemould Gallery, Air-India Collector, Chatterjee & Lal Gallery and countless Bombay-London friends for their kind help.
