A festive New Year's Eve celebration. Two hands in formal attire (white and black) hold champagne flutes, clinking them together. In the foreground, a wooden board holds several appetizers: small white shells with salmon and cucumber, and round breads with cream and garnishes. To the right, a row of glasses filled with vibrant green drinks sits on the board. The scene is decorated with red and white tinsel and a yellow balloon in the background.

A photograph of a dining table set for a Christmas party. The table is covered with a dark cloth and is elegantly set with white plates, silverware, and various glassware including wine glasses, champagne flutes, and water glasses. A bottle of champagne is chilling in an ice bucket. The table is positioned in front of a large window that offers a panoramic view of the London skyline, including the Canary Wharf area with its modern skyscrapers and the River Thames. To the right of the table, a large, decorated Christmas tree is visible, adorned with white and blue ornaments and lights. The overall atmosphere is sophisticated and festive.
