Location

On opposite sides of West Smithfield, a leafy and historic enclave in the heart of the City, lie 56 West Smithfield and Origin City – two unique and boutique family-owned venues.

We are located moments away from the Elizabeth line station at Farringdon, and also within easy walking distance from City Thameslink, St Pauls, Barbican, Moorgate, Bank and Blackfriars.

WEST SMITHFIELD
Wine Bar & Shop

56 West Smithfield is a friendly and cosy, urban wine bar and lounge, where you can discover award-winning wines from a community of small-scale, independent wine-makers – directly from our vineyards to your glass. As award-winning organic winemakers ourselves, we have partnered with like-minded, family-owned and boutique wineries to bring our rare and wonderful wines to you at 56 West Smithfield, without costly intermediaries, offering exceptional quality and unbeatable value for money.

Our wine bar is in an old converted house over 4 cosy and characterful floors, looking out over West Smithfield and Smithfield Market. From our ground floor shop and terrace, 1st floor rustic lounge, and 2nd floor scandi-chic tasting room, we offer a huge range of events, from daytime board-room-style meetings, private wine tastings, drinks receptions, and even exclusive hire of the entire venue, for a luxe ‘house party’ atmosphere.

Origin

In the shadow of London's oldest meat market, Origin City is our newly-opened, family-owned restaurant offering an authentic pasture-to-plate, nose-to-tail fine dining experience. All of our produce comes from our own family farm in Argyll, with its deep commitment to sustainability and organic farming practices, in line with our 'Great taste, no waste' ethos.

With lofty ceilings, luxurious tweed-backed banquettes, and crisp linen tablecloths, Origin City provides a smart yet instantly welcoming atmosphere, combining British fine dining with old family traditions, and a touch of Scottish ruggedness - a fusion of our family's passions and history. Whatever the occasion, with our flexible layout and range of semi-private spaces, we can offer a truly memorable experience.

‘Great taste, no waste.’

Across both venues we have a deep commitment to sustainability and minimising our environmental impact.

At Origin City, all of our meat is sourced from our family farm in Argyll, which is entirely organic. By carrying out all of the butchery in-house and staying inventive with our menus, we can ensure that we use every part of the animal, thus minimising waste.

Similarly, all of the wine from our vineyard in Provence, Chateau de la Combe, is organic, with much of the growing, picking and wine-making processes being carried out by hand, by our family. By following this low-impact approach, we not only can ensure that our produce is as sustainable as possible, we can also guarantee fantastic quality.
