ABOUT

Arcade is a digital-first global food and drink destination in the iconic Battersea Power Station housing kitchens that travel the world, from Cantonese char siu to North Indian butter chicken and fiery Thai stir fries.

We work closely with the most exciting talent in food to develop bespoke menus for groups of 12 to parties of 700 for birthdays, company get togethers and everything in between. Our unique app-to-table ordering system enables your guests to order from our extensive menu, customising to individual dietary requirements and tastes.
