Located in a quiet street in Belgravia, The Halkin is within walking distance of Hyde Park, Knightsbridge and Victoria, which serves the Gatwick Express train, and only a 45-minute taxi ride from Heathrow airport.

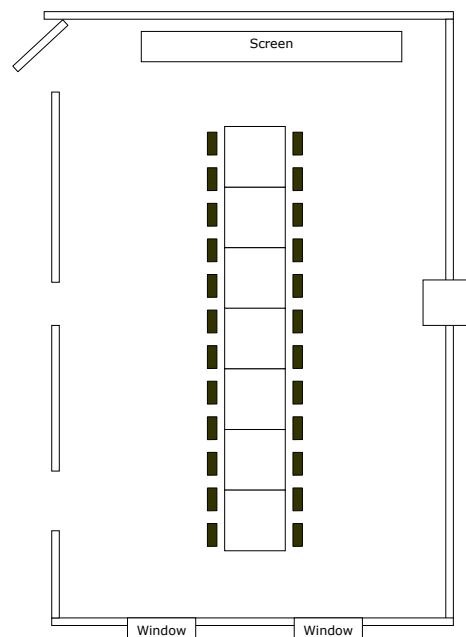

COMO The Halkin is a stylish boutique hotel occupying an elegant Georgian building in London's Belgravia. Considered a timeless classic, it is the place for the most discreet of private events. The interior style is understated and features crisp yet cossetting wools, silks and linens in cool taupes and creams.

We have two private dining spaces for meetings, parties or any other celebration. A dining area that suits gatherings of up to 50 guests seated and 90 standing, and a dining room that accommodates up to 24 seated guests or 35 standing.

Private Dining Room

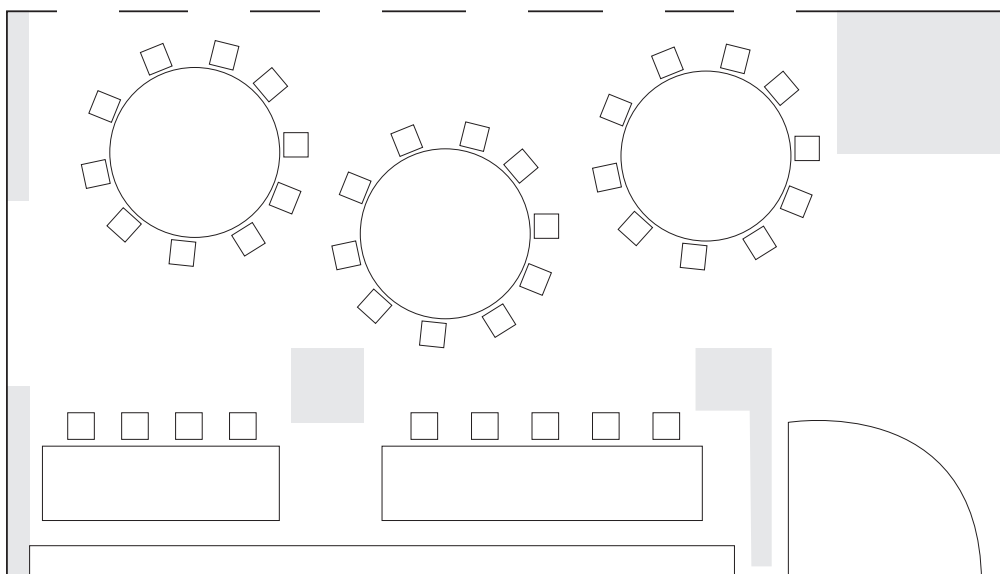

The private dining room, with over 43 square metres of space, is ideal for an all-day meeting or more intimate events and celebrations. The space is flooded with light from the large windows that overlook the garden. Large mirrored doors can be left open to incorporate the main dining area or closed for greater privacy. The space can accommodate up to 24 people seated or 35 standing.

Private Dining Area

The private dining area of COMO The Halkin has a wave-like ceiling made up of over 7,000 glass receptacles filled with spices, along with a warm oak floor, lacquered walls and floor-to-ceiling windows. The room suits gatherings of up to 45 seated guests or up to 90 for a standing reception.

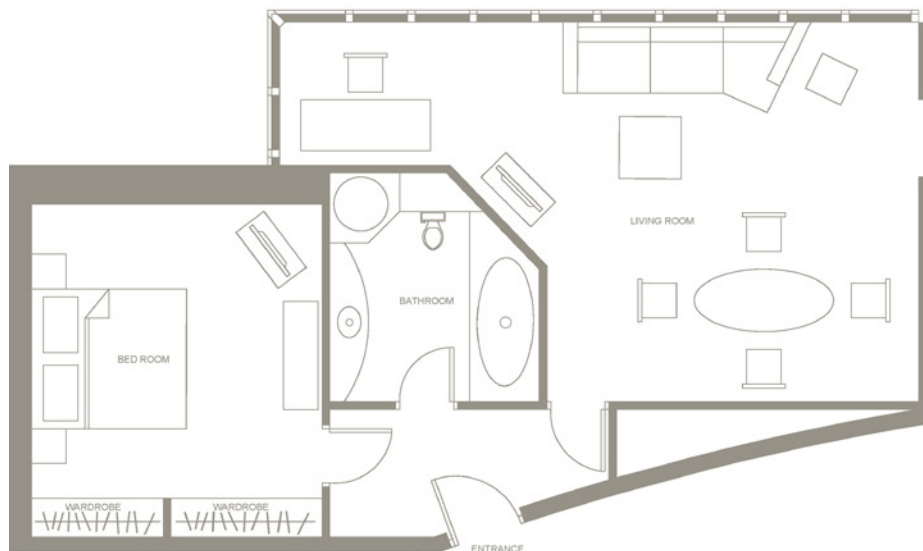

COMO Suite

With over 64 square metres of space, a COMO Suite is perfect for receptions and intimate celebrations. Located on the third and fourth floors, these headline suites feature large windows that fill the space with natural light and offer stunning city and garden views. Two of the COMO Suites on the third floor also include private balconies.

The space accommodates up to 12 people standing, six for a boardroom meeting, and five for a private dinner.
