QUILON

The first south Indian restaurant in the world to win a Michelin star, retained since 2008. The fine dining menu is heralded for its progressive interpretation of ethnic seafood, game, poultry and vegetarian dishes from the South-West Indian Coast.

HOUSE OF MING

House of Ming is set to offer diners in London an unforgettable experience inspired by Sichuan and Cantonese cuisine. From the kitchens of ancient China to London comes the legendary journey of Ming cuisine. A journey that imparted culture, cuisine, and the intricacies of the Ming dynasty across the ever-expanding trade routes.

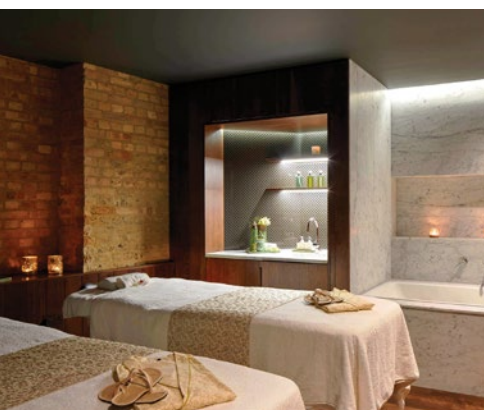

TH@51

TH@51 is a brand new stylish restaurant that welcomes communities of food lovers to pique their palates. The modern eatery is perfect for relaxing with friends and relishing in great conversation from day to night. The menu draws inspiration from flavours around the world, exploring the unexplored to create a food and drink experience that excites all senses.

KONA

A haven from the hustle and bustle of London, Kona is a place to indulge in a sophisticated dining experience in a luxurious yet laid-back ambience. Most famous for its creative take on afternoon teas, Kona is also a popular venue for exclusive private dining in the evenings. With two themed afternoon teas: The Secret Garden afternoon tea and Indian Jasmine afternoon tea, to choose from you will be spoilt for choice.

J WELLNESS CIRCLE

Rooted in centuries-old traditions of wellness in India, Taj Hotels' signature J Wellness Circle offers holistic sanctuaries in environments that lend themselves to overall well-being. Perfectly suited to balance mind and body, the treatments are inspired by the Indian heritage of healing traditions, Ayurveda and Yoga.
