Elizabethan grandeur, exclusively yours...

THE HALL

Encapsulating the true nature, life and history of Gray's Inn, the Hall manages to effortlessly combine intimacy, tradition and grandeur for any occasion. Captivating in its traditional surroundings, the Hall is decorated with historic paintings and heraldic shields. Several of the exquisite stained-glass windows date back to 1462.

The historic Armada screen is believed to be made of oak timbers from a captured ship of the Spanish Armada, gifted to the Inn by Queen Elizabeth I. The balcony above this screen acts as a great vantage point for your photographer to snap some great photographs of the day.

The Hall is the perfect centrepiece for your wedding day and requires minimal decorating, some simple yet elegant flowers or our stunning silver candlesticks are all it takes to really elevate the space.

One of the largest private gardens in London...

THE WALKS & MARQUEE

Gray's Inn gardens are known as The Walks and were originally laid out in 1608 by the then Treasurer, Sir Francis Bacon, whose statue can be seen in the South Square. The Walks remain among the largest private gardens in London: five acres of perfectly maintained park entered through a pair of impressive iron gates. The gardens provide a peaceful oasis amidst the busy streets of Central London and are available throughout the year for drinks receptions and a picturesque spot for your wedding photos.

During the summer the Walks are equipped with a luxury marquee structure, perfect for a summer wedding reception and entertaining guests in beautiful surroundings.
