

PASTON BROWN ROOM

BOARDROOM 32

With its large windows, The Paston Brown Room is an original Victorian room. The room benefits from natural light and offers a classic College environment with its beautiful arched ceiling. Originally Homerton College's music room, it has now been transformed into a comfortable and versatile meeting space. The arched ceiling and low wooden panelling give the room a real sense of a traditional classroom.

Equipped with a complete set of AV, raised stage, and blackout options, the Paston Brown Room is an ideal space to host all manner of presentations and formal meetings.
