

THE

FARMHOUSE

AT REDCOATS

RESTAURANT & HOTEL

An aerial photograph of a farm complex. In the center is a large, dark-roofed barn. To its right is a multi-story house with a light-colored facade and a dark roof. The farm is surrounded by lush green fields and dense trees. A gravel parking area with a few cars is visible in the lower left. A paved road or driveway leads towards the bottom right. The sky is clear and blue.

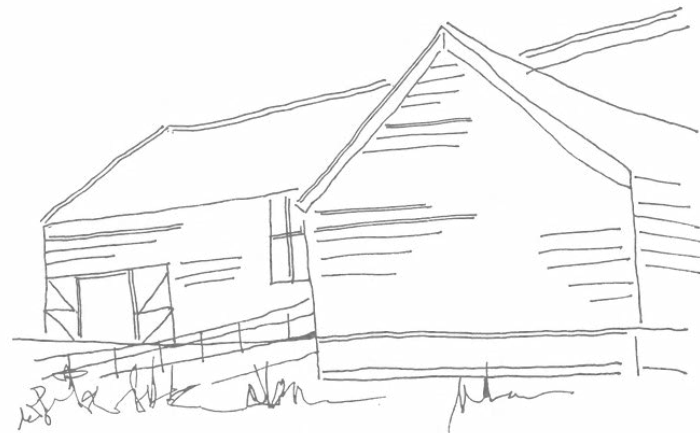

Welcome to The Farmhouse...
A place to gather and grow

The Farmhouse at Redcoats is dated back to the 15th century and is nestled in the rolling North Hertfordshire countryside.

Located only 30 minutes from London, close to the A1 and near to London Luton Airport.

Just the place...

If you're looking for somewhere to gather and grow, or unwind and relax, we know just the place. We've worked hard to curate a nurturing environment that's perfect for small board meetings, larger retreats, takeovers, all-day conferences and banqueting to impress.

We have hosted...

“As a Fortune 500 company operating in the most competitive sales environment (recruitment) and in the most competitive market in the world (the UK) our leadership off-sites are key sessions for ensuring we make the very best decisions for our business and the tens of thousands of temp and perm candidates we employ every week. Redcoats has become a real sanctuary for that calm leadership. It has been a key component in us ‘getting it right’ at board level in challenging times and a fabulous place in which to celebrate our successes, align our teams and build a winning culture. Redcoats even enabled our board meetings to have that special atmosphere during lockdown when a 3 course meal was delivered to our respective homes and the Head Chef walked us through the menu, its provenance and inspiration. Thank you Redcoats and the entire gang at Anglian Country Inns”

Adam Nicoll - UK & Ireland Marketing
Director

“The Farmhouse was the perfect venue for our team braincare retreat. I've learned after numerous retreats that if you get the food right - the rest seems to work, and this is where Farmhouse have an edge - the quality and consistency of great food was appreciated by everyone (and still talked about) which then meant we could fully enjoy every other great benefit of our surroundings from the gorgeous barn, the lovely walks, and crucially the superb wellness network they had on hand to help facilitate much needed down time for the team. All the rooms were extremely comfortable and all this is why we've already booked again for our next one!”
