

Venue Hire

in the heart of Guildford

An inspiring space for every occasion.

Our theatre

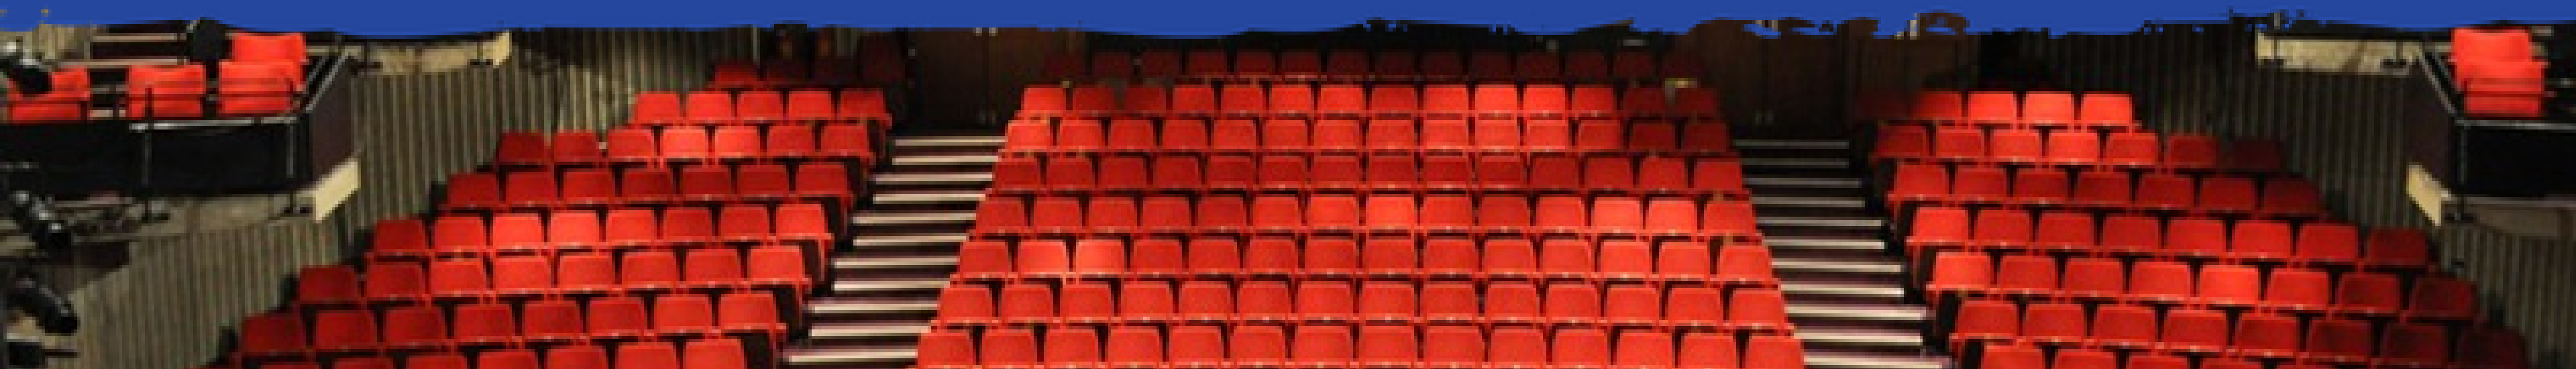

Located in Guildford, Surrey, the Yvonne Arnaud Theatre offers a distinctive and memorable venue for a wide range of events. Set in a central Guildford location, our adaptable and highly sought-after spaces provide a truly unique setting for gatherings of all kinds.

Our Grade II listed theatre has recently undergone a full renovation, creating beautiful and versatile spaces in a stunning riverside location. With a wide selection of accessible rooms available for hire, the theatre is an inspiring place to host everything from private celebrations and receptions to corporate meetings and commemorative events.

We offer in-house catering to suit every occasion, from drinks receptions to finger buffets and more. With flexible event spaces, excellent service, a unique theatre environment and an experienced events team, you can be confident that your event will be delivered with care, professionalism and attention to detail.

As a registered charity, every hire directly supports our artistic programme and community outreach work. By choosing to host your event with us, you are helping to sustain the creative life of the theatre and support the work we do across the local community.
