

One of the most unique event spaces in the capital.

If you are looking for the perfect event that will WOW your guests for all the right reasons, Ivory Vaults can make it happen.

This hidden gem is situated within the historical vaulted cellars of the Grade II listed Ivory House at St. Katharine Docks, just few minutes walking from Tower Bridge and the Tower of London.

The 200 year old structure exudes charm and individuality, perfect for a bespoke event. Devised in nine intimate private dining areas flaunting vaulted ceiling, interlinked by a vast open passageway, the 10,000 sq. ft. venue has capacity for up to 450 guests.

This historic venue offers hassle-free corporate events thanks to their in-house catering and production team, on site bar and events management team. It also allows flexibility and smooth service, as their experienced team had delivered a variety of events for more than 40 years.

Specialised in themed events, they have a great selection to choose from and bespoke packages can also be arranged. To add a super special dash of individuality and to give you guests some superb entertainment, you can also arrange one of their interactive shows.

Ivory Vaults have prepared three exciting events for summer, their crowd-pleasing Embargo 1920's themed event, which transforms the venue in a speakeasy with Gatsby infused furor. On the other hand, Summer Ball is a glamorous event, perfect to show off your best clothes and sip on cocktails, and the venue can be set up to accommodate speeches if needed. And the latest addition to their portfolio, Music Quiz, with a live band, is a fantastic option for company event that allows you and your team to bond in a relaxed environment.

They are also one of the most popular events in the capital for private and shared Christmas parties (semi-private areas available). Their Winter Wonderland themed events will allow you to step into a winter fantasy and take you on a journey complete with minstrels and jesters, acrobats and dragons.

The Ivory Vaults are also available as a dry hire, this is particularly suitable for corporate events or larger productions and venue finders who are looking for a unique, stunning and historic venue situated in central London.
