

The British Museum

Out of hours tours

Treat your clients to an intimate out of hours tour; experiencing thousands of years of history before the Museum opens to the public.

Whether choosing between navigating the history of China, or walking in the footsteps of pharaohs; one of the finest collections of art and antiquities in the world will be your clients for the duration of their tour.

Private access for your clients only

Choose from:

- An introduction to the British Museum: Rooms 1, 2, & 2a
- An introduction to Egyptian Sculpture: Room 4
- An introduction to China and South Asia: Room 33
- An introduction to the Ancient Egyptian Afterlife: Rooms 61-66
- An introduction to Japan: Rooms 92-94
- An introduction to the Ancient Greeks: Rooms 12 - 23
- An introduction to the Ancient Rome: Rooms 69 – 73

Guiding options

You can arrange your own guide for any of these out of hours tours. Alternatively, during the booking process we can advise you on booking an accredited guide for your clients, who regularly deliver tours of the Museum's collection.

If your clients would like to experience the galleries out of hours without a tour guide, then you are welcome to book the space for private access.

Book today

We charge a minimum of £360 per space for up to 12 people. Additional clients will be charged £30 each. Accredited guides come at an additional cost of around £200.

Our team will be of assistance throughout your booking, from initial enquiries through to the tour itself.
