HOLMES HOTEL

Located in the heart of Marylebone, Holmes Hotel is a home away from home for curious minds. Comprised of four beautifully restored Georgian buildings in characterful Marylebone Village, the hotel is inspired by Baker Street's most famous resident - Sherlock Holmes. Like the man himself, the hotel is a witty blend of heritage and playfulness, with 118 guest rooms and luxurious loft suites, a sumptuous lounge, tranquil library, ten meeting and event spaces and a gym.

Holmes is filled with a stylish mix of antiques, curiosities and artefacts that are bound to intrigue even the busiest of guests. These nestle comfortably alongside contemporary furniture by leading luxury designers, including Tom Dixon and Muuto. Limited-edition artworks by Nelly Duff Gallery adorn the walls, while guests are invited to make themselves comfortable amidst the Simon Key Bertman throws and sumptuous fabrics and furnishings by Mourné Textiles.

Perfectly located in Marylebone on the exclusive Chiltern Street, Holmes is easily connected to Baker Street, Marylebone, Paddington, Euston, Kings Cross and Bond Street on the Elizabeth Line.
