Your Special Day

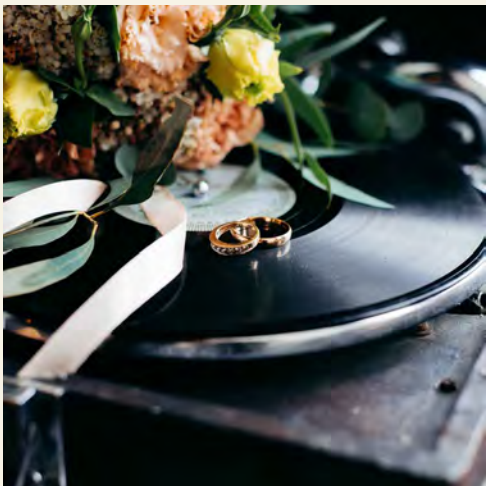

Refined Elegance

Weddings call for sophistication, an elegant ambience and impeccable service. Luckily, our lovingly redesigned event spaces, served by a dedicated team of event planners, provide the perfect combination to bring your special day to life.

With an unwavering attention to quality and service, our talented team of chefs are committed to showcasing the best seasonal produce from the British Isles in delicious and memorable dishes. Paired with British and international wines, and welcomed by a glass of Searcys' very own Cuvée Champagne, your guests will be in for a treat.

The Library

Your guests' journey starts with a grand entrance through our historic porch, adorned with classical columns which leads to a spacious lobby featuring distinctive portraits of past Royal College of Surgeons alumni.

Our staircase will then transport invitees to our book-lined Library Room, which lends an unforgettable sense of period elegance to proceedings. Steeped in history, this heritage space on the first floor houses a medical science book collection noted as Europe's finest since the 19th century. By the close of the 19th century, it was widely recognised that the Royal College of Surgeons possessed one of the finest medical science library collections in Europe.

CAPACITIES:

Ceremony up to 100 guests

Drinks reception up to 150 guests

Dinner up to 80 guests

The View

The modern View, meanwhile, takes over the entire top floor, offering a self-contained destination with numerous opportunities for bespoke decorative flourishes.

The space is filled with light and offers an outside terrace with views over London. Up to 250 guests can be hosted here for a seated dinner, or 300 guests standing.

Featuring exceptional modern facilities, and overlooking London's largest public square, Lincoln's Inn Field, The View offers weddings and special events accented by the capital's iconic skyline.
