The Grand Ballroom

The Grandest Affair

Our Grade II listed Grand Ballroom has been beautifully designed to highlight all of its classical features. With soft hues of cream and gold, accompanied with high ceilings, this room is iconic and gloriously lit. The elegant décor of the ballroom offers many possibilities to create a grand event including banquets, large conferences and receptions.

The draped windows open up to a terrace overlooking The Courtyard Garden, a rare treasure in London, offering an al fresco element to your event.

Summer Gatherings

During the warmer months our Courtyard Garden offers a hidden oasis in the city for an outdoor gathering. One of the oldest private gardens in the West End, this courtyard can host up to 200 people.

The south facing garden creates the perfect setting for a fun and memorable event that you and your guests can enjoy.

The Courtyard Garden

Successful Meetings

The Langham, London is proud to be one of the most historic meeting venues in London. Yet with history comes innovation and our talented team are fully equipped to support modern business needs, affording you seamless service and anticipating your every requirement with flexibility and flair. We offer a diverse mix of meeting spaces from our charming Private Carriage rooms to our state-of-the-art meeting rooms in Langham House.

The Fitzrovia

Exceptional Dining

All of The Langham, London's menus are overseen by Michelin-starred Chef, Michel Roux Jr, whose influence can be felt in the culinary offerings of the restaurants and bars as well as the meetings and events.

'Private Dining by Roux' offers a unique dining concept incorporating the Chez Roux hallmarks of classic French cuisine interpreted with a modern twist and combined with personal service.

The Postillion

At The Langham, London

We have a team of experts to help guide you through the organisation of your meeting or event with care and passion to ensure that the day runs smoothly. From our event planners, chefs and managers we are a community dedicated to creating successful and unforgettable events.

The Hotel

The Langham, London dates back to 1865 and was one of Europe's first Grand Hotels. The hotel is steeped in history from an ingrained sense of hospitality to hosting famous literary guests such as Oscar Wilde and Marie Louise Ramé, commonly known as Ouida.

Our 380 bedrooms are elegantly furnished, with a focus on comfort and tranquillity offering luxury amenities such as personalised service, car transfers, in-room breakfast menus overseen by chef Michael Roux Jr. and 24 hour concierge service.

Chuan Body + Soul

Our spa encompasses a journey of wellness, with pampering treatments, sauna and steam rooms, and 16 metre indoor pool. Steeped in the values of Traditional Chinese Medicine, Chuan Body + Soul offers you a relaxing setting to unwind after a long day.

Health Club

Our gym is equipped with the ARTIS range designed by the renowned Italian brand, Technogym. This range is ergonomically and biomechanically designed and is the first range created to be integrated in the My Wellness cloud-based platform giving you the ultimate interactive experience.

Hotel Features

Menus

Our menus have the hallmarks of classic French cuisine with contemporary twists, and are overseen by chef Michel Roux Jr. We use excellent seasonal ingredients and cater for all special requirements, including collaborating with the very best Kosher and Asian caterers when requested.

Artesian

Our award-winning bar is a fun and sophisticated space for you to enjoy a cocktail after a productive day.

Palm Court

For an ultimate British experience, enjoy the Langham's afternoon tea at the Palm Court, the birthplace of the afternoon tea tradition.

The Wigmore

Our modern British tavern is a social hub with a carefully curated craft beers list, including our very own house "Wigmore Saison", as well as a series of hoptails, the first British cocktail.
