074	House of Commons Brut Reserve, Gardet, France 12% ABV 9.0 units Su Ve	£55.00
-----	--	--------

Our House of Commons Brut Tradition Champagne comes from Maison Gardet, a family-owned champagne house based in Chigny-les-Roses, a premier Cru-ranked village in the heart of the "Montagne de Reims". Maison Gardet has been producing champagne since 1895, maintaining the quality and character of its wines year after year through a combination of traditional and modern wine-making methods.

Composed of 90% Pinot Noir and 10% Chardonnay, House of Commons Brut is an exceptional honey gold champagne with a full-bodied consistency that has balance and length.

339	House of Commons Vintage Brut, Digby, 2013, England 12% ABV 9.0 units Su Ve	£56.00
-----	--	--------

A great champion of British excellence, the House of Commons has carefully selected Arundel-based Digby Fine English as the maker of its official English sparkling wine. The wine selected is the new vintage of Digby's flagship style, which is often held up as one of the finest wines in the country.

The House of Commons Vintage English sparkling wine has been aged in the cellars for seven years prior to release and shows a personality which combines Digby's signature English freshness with a deep, rich complexity and long finish. It all comes with a bottle design honouring the first wine bottle in modern times, which was invented by Sir Kenelm Digby.

The first vines were planted in 1973, when local wine retailer Alan McKechnie started harvesting the vines on his small fruit farm. With a little help from the 1976 record summer temperatures and bumper harvest, his small fruit farm began to expand. Under the ownership of John Oldacre the vineyards flourished and the name was changed from Fairfield Fruit Farms to Three Choirs Vineyards due largely to John’s connections to the Three Choirs Festival, England’s oldest choral festival.

A crisp, refreshing wine with distinctly English hedgerow aromas and hints of crisp apple, fragrant elderflower and freshly cut grass. The ripe fruit flavours, balanced acidity and subtle residual sugar combine to create a refreshing wine, perfect on its own or with fish dishes.

Our new range of House of Commons wines feature a label design inspired by the Victorian-era, neo-gothic designs of A.W.N. Pugin, who oversaw virtually all aspects of the Palace of Westminster’s interior design during its reconstruction in the 19th century.

This 2019 vintage Bordeaux from Chateau La Tuilerie du Puy is a fresh but complex wine, with appealing red and black fruits on the nose and an excellent length of flavour finished with refined tannins. It is well balanced, medium bodied, and holds its own alongside robust dishes such as Beef Wellington.

071	Merlot, House of Commons, La Vicomte	£30.00
-----	--------------------------------------	--------

13.5% ABV | 10.1 units | Su | Ve

Our new range of House of Commons wines feature a label design inspired by the Victorian-era, neo-gothic designs of A.W.N. Pugin, who oversaw virtually all aspects of the Palace of Westminster's interior design during its reconstruction in the 19th century. This House of Commons Merlot is a perfectly balanced red that gives pleasing aromas of blackcurrants and red cherries with a hint of spice. It's produced by the Vicomte establishment in heart of the Languedoc region, whose villages of the Aumelas Plateau have been inhabited by winegrowers for 25 centuries.
