We set out to create a restaurant we would want to eat in ourselves. A place where what's on your plate depends on what is absolutely in season, and one that uses the best ingredients from local farmers and suppliers whenever possible.

The room itself is spectacular, with large windows casting dappled light across the original features of the building. The service is also first class, but the feel is definitely unfussy. At its heart it is a beautiful space to relax and enjoy wonderfully made food.

Mezzanine Bar

Set on a mezzanine level over the main restaurant, our super chic bar is a destination in itself. The modern marble topped bar and velvet covered bar stools contrast beautifully with the building's newly revealed oak beams and beautifully restored stonework.

It's the perfect spot to enjoy a glass of Champagne and canapes before your meal while watching the theatre of the dining space below.
