AFTERNOON TEA

TEA SELECTION

GENMAICHA

Made from Japanese Bancha this green tea is blended with roasted and popped rice grains

BANCHA

This long and coarse leaf unfolds in the pot producing a very traditional and superior quality of Japanese green tea

JASMINE BLOSSOM

A magical flowering green tea ball mixed with amaranth, jasmine, chrysanthemum and lavender blossoms

EGYPTIAN MINT

A delightful spearmint aroma and mildly sweet flavour. Long associated with improving digestion

ENGLISH BREAKFAST

A traditionally 'English' tea prepared from the best Indian and Ceylon teas, enjoyed by customers from all parts of the world.

SENCHA

Sencha is one of the best known green tea varieties, Sencha meaning steamed tea

HIBISCUS BLOSSOM

Served best as an infusion the hibiscus blossom can either be drunk on its own or added to a fruit tea blend

CEYLON ORANGE PEKOE

A tightly twisted twig-like leaf that unfolds in the pot to produce a strong yet delicate flavour with a slight bitterness

GINGER & LEMONGRASS

Fruity, fresh lemon grass and spicy ginger match perfectly and liquorice root contributes the extra touch of finesse

LADY WHISTLEDOWN'S

An extraordinary blend of finest black tea, rose petals, rosehip and blackberry leaves producing a delicious and wonderfully floral note

EARL GREY

Named for Charles, 2nd Earl Grey, British Prime Minister 1830-1834 who was reputedly given some tea flavoured with bergamot-probably a diplomatic gift
