BUSINESS WITH PLEASURE

Cotswold Inns & Hotels was founded in 1997 by Michael and Pamela Horton and is now proud to be part of the Fuller's Family.

The collection was formed by a very careful selection of charming hotels that just needed a new lease of life. The character of our hotels is relaxed, friendly, good-looking but not demanding, and above all - quintessentially English! We encourage each hotel to reveal a personality of its own, creating a special atmosphere and unique quirkiness to experience in each one.

TEAM BUILDING WITH COTSWOLD INNS & HOTELS

We have lots of glorious spaces for you to host a successful team building event. We can recommend some team building partners who will help organise a wide range of activities to get that team motivation flowing. Or if you fancy doing something offsite we have our little black book of local attractions.

Bond in the tranquillity of our beautiful walled gardens or roam the wonderful Cotswold countryside that surrounds our beautiful locations. We aspire to offer you the inspirable, which is ultimately the foundational ingredient to building a strong team. Why not try your hand at falconry at Batsford Arboretum, geese herding in the hotel gardens or challenge your colleagues to a game of polo at Beaufort. Get involved in country life with a riding lesson at the local stables, or why not try shooting or fishing at one of the nearby clubs? Pull on a pair of 'Hunters' and opt for the simple life with a walk around our surrounding countryside or maybe even a nature trail. There are plenty of grassy meadows and woodlands to explore and history to uncover
