The Tea Room

This new space represents the pinnacle of Ladurée's design vision, drawing inspiration from Versailles' Hall of Mirrors as well as the classic features of the halls of English Manor houses; all whilst championing the iconic architecture and views of Covent Garden.

This reinvented space, which carefully juxtaposed profound French elegance with the classic feel of London's historic buildings, offers elegant event space for breakfasts, afternoon teas or cocktail receptions.

The Artist Studio

The Artist's studio exudes a sense of spring, yet warm and inviting seamlessly blending the realms of fauna and flora. The ceiling artwork beautifully captures the blooming flowers that adorn this space, and subtle touches of fabrics inspired by nature pays homage to Madeleine Castaing who also inspired the iconic Tea Room.

Laduree rue Bonaparte in Paris, mirroring the exquisite textiles used for the upholstery of furnishings found in historical palaces.
