Restaurant

Executive chef Phil Kearsley and Head Chef Farrel Hirsch lead our award winning kitchen team, crafting the tasting menu with passion and flair, and putting Morston Hall on the map for its distinct dining experience. When dining at Morston Hall, expect a delectable display of the finest seasonal ingredients from both land and sea that Norfolk has to offer, curated into our daily changing taster menu.

"The bottom line about Morston Hall is that it's as close to an earthly paradise as a British hotel-restaurant will transport you" - The Guardian

Each day at Morston Hall begins with the land and sea just beyond our doors — from the kitchen garden outside the window to the small-scale suppliers we've worked with for decades. The result is a meticulously crafted daily changing tasting menu that's as refined as it is grounded; timeless, elegant, unpretentious, and capturing the very essence of the Norfolk coast.
