Jamón Carver

In Spain, the carving of jamón is not only a skill, but also a performance – one that embodies craftsmanship, hospitality, and respect for the ingredient.

As part of your event, our resident carver Zac is available to create a truly memorable experience. Before your guests, he hand-carves a leg of ibérico or serrano ham with precision and artistry, showcasing why jamón is one of Spain's most treasured delicacies.

For weddings, private celebrations, or business occasions, Zac's carving becomes both a centrepiece and a performance – an authentic expression of Spanish hospitality that lingers well beyond the final slice.

A hand is reaching towards a small dish of tapas on a wooden table. The table is laden with various Spanish small plates, including olives, bread, cheese, and wine glasses. The scene is set in a warm, dimly lit environment, likely a restaurant or bar. The text "Sample Menus" is overlaid on the image, enclosed in a white oval.
