Trinity House is a hidden gem in the centre of The City; with spectacular views over the Tower of London, Tower Bridge, and Trinity Square, the house offers an exciting setting for a London wedding.

A versatile venue, Trinity House is available on an exclusive basis; offering the use of five rooms which vary in size and style. We would recommend your guests arrive into The Court Room, a grand stately room filled with gold frames and a painted ceiling, for their champagne reception. At the ringing of The Britannia Bell, guests would be invited to The Library for the Wedding Breakfast overlooking The Tower of London. Once the meal is served, both the Reading Room and Pepys Room can be revealed for dancing and an after dinner bar!

Both the Court Room and Library are available for civil ceremonies; giving you the flexibility to have the ceremony at Trinity House or at one of our nearby churches; St. Olaves and All Hallows by The Tower. If you are interested in having the ceremony at Trinity House please do contact The Islington and London City Register Office 020 7527 6350/6351 or islingtonandlondoncityregistrars@islington.gov.uk
