

YOUR WEDDING

at Langshott Manor

More a private house than a hotel, Langshott Manor has a long and illustrious history as a place to gather and celebrate. Intimately sized, it is perfect for exclusive use and is a show-shopping choice for your wedding.

With a chocolate-box selection of 22 unique rooms & suites, arranged across the Tudor Manor, Royal Lodge and two mews buildings, Langshott Manor is ideal for a whole house (or 'half house') takeover.

Step into the Tudor Manor and be greeted by glorious original features, rambling reception rooms, open fires and wood panelling. Where better we ask, to gather with your nearest and dearest to celebrate your marriage?

Discover how you can live out your wedding dreams at Langshott and live like Lords & Ladies of your own Manor for the day (or longer...).

EXCLUSIVE USE

at Langshott Manor

Our House team love nothing more than hosting a wedding at Langshott. The glorious details, the ceremony of it all - it gets us each & every time.

Perfectly sized for 'Exclusive Use', you can have our private house hotel all to yourself (and your guests of course!). You'll have all 22 bedrooms and the whole house & gardens from 3pm until 7am the following day.

We also offer 'half-house' hire, taking the main Tudor Manor and the Royal Lodge, comprising of 14 bedrooms in total, with run of the Manor for your wedding breakfast and reception. It's also a perfect option for the night before your big day, to gather your nearest and dearest and to settle in.

With all of our Exclusive Use weddings, the utmost care is taken to design your perfect day by our talented and passionate planning team. You'll find no packages here; everything we do is bespoke and to your exact specification.

THE TUDOR MANOR

Dating back over 500 years, Langshott Manor is a stunning example of tudor architecture.

THE START OF SOMETHING SPECIAL

Your big day (or days perhaps...) is about the two of you. Crafting a wedding where your personalities shine through is what we excel at.

To start building an image of what your perfect day might look like, and perhaps to start your Pinterest board too, we've set out how your day might unfold...

PICTURE THIS...

Our fairy tale pretty manor in Surrey is perfect for a destination wedding. Friends & family can assemble from afar (even abroad with Gatwick in easy reach), and to make the most of your time with your nearest and dearest, we recommend starting the festivities a day early...

REHEARSAL DINNER

Whether with half house or exclusive use the night prior, a 'rehearsal dinner' is the perfect way to start your celebrations.

We like to think of these as relaxed affairs with family & friends; buckets of beers, BBQs in the summer months and hearty tray bakes in the winter, with the fires lit and a full-bodied red being poured. Most importantly, plenty of time to catch up, check your check-lists and really begin to relax and enjoy proceedings.

Room to write your own story...

GETTING READY

A few deep breaths and last words of wisdom...

A MORNING OF BUTTERFLIES AND BEAUTY

Whether you stay the night before or arrive on the day, we'll make sure there is space in one of our drawing rooms for the bridal party to set up camp, pop a few corks and get ready for the day ahead.

We'd suggest a light elevenes of finger sandwiches to settle tummies, and a few mimosas to steady nerves.

Room to jot down some thoughts...

THE I DOS

At Langshott, our largest room The Mulberry can play host to your wedding ceremony, or alternatively in the fairer months you may wish to use our pretty pavilion on the lawn (pictured), which is also licensed.

For church services, under 2 miles from door to door is the charming St Bartholomew's Church.

Fondly known as St Bart's, the Church is the oldest of the three Anglican churches in Horley dating back to the 14th century.

YOUR

READY TO RECEIVE

The gardens are yours for an elegant cocktail & canapé reception in the summer months. In the winter, warming beef & Yorkshire pudding canapés by the fire are a delight, served alongside our house-spiced Glühwein by sparkling candelight.

Or perhaps you prefer sliders and local cider with hay bales and bunting? Anything is possible...

Musings on menus...

FABULOUS FEASTING

The Mulberry makes the perfect backdrop for your wedding breakfast. Examples of menus you will find enclosed toward the end of this brochure; we are however, all ears for your preferences.

During your planning, you will meet with Chef to design your menu; from Chef's favourite dishes to fully bespoke items. From a classic gala-style wedding breakfast to dishes inspired by your travels, you and your guests will be treated to gorgeous, generous cuisine at Langshott.

A few of your favourite dishes are...

THE NIGHT IS YET YOUNG...

After the speeches & feasting assuredly comes the dancing! The Mulberry and Drawing Room can transform into spaces for dance floors and bands or DJs to play the night away.

Meanwhile, in St Peter's Bar and the adjoining lounges guests will find a spot to rest their feet and recharge, ready for the next number.

Late night sustenance may come in the form of a hog roast perhaps, or a spread of cheeses. Maybe even fish finger sandwiches and cones of mac n' cheese?

AND SO TO BED...

Our 22 bedrooms are all individually appointed, named after Tudor royalty, castles, local gardens and racecourses.

Each room comes with our luxurious linens, robes, beautiful bathroom amenities, filtered water, coffee & biscuits and more.

You are your guests will enjoy a full 'recovery' breakfast the morning after the night before.

THE BEECH PARADE

AND BEFORE ALL OF THAT...

Clay-shooting in the Surrey Hills? Gin tasting on the terrace? From still life drawing to BBQ lessons from the Weber Academy, our sister property, Barnett Hill, in the Surrey Hills, is perfect for group getaways before your big day.

Some call them hens, some call them stags - perhaps even a 'sten' do. Our very big house in the country is the ideal host for such gatherings, with much & more to do, along with great cuisine, sublime cocktails and our usual level of luxury.

It's also our big exclusive use option at the AHC, perfect for weddings & events that are too large for us at lovely Langshott.

Do feel free to talk to us about the options...
