THE BEAUMONT

On a quiet square in Mayfair, surrounded by London's smartest boutiques and galleries, The Beaumont is a five-star luxury hotel with just 50 rooms and 22 suites and studios, including ROOM, an extraordinary sculpture by Antony Gormley that forms its own one-bedroom suite. Inspired by the grand Art Deco hotels of 1920s London and New York, The Beaumont combines old-fashioned levels of service with all the latest facilities.

Since it opened in 2014, the hotel has won many of the world's top travel accolades, featuring in Condé Nast Traveler's Gold List and TripAdvisor's 25 Best Luxury Hotels in the World.

The Beaumont offers a fine room for private dining, business meetings and family events: the versatile Lotos Room, approached down a sweeping flight of stairs. A dedicated organiser will be on hand to coordinate every aspect of your event, with menus created by the chefs of The Colony Grill, The Beaumont's elegant restaurant.

THE LOTOS ROOM

Panelled in cherry and walnut wood, The Lotos Room is fully furnished with leather chairs, a grand board table and a bespoke Art Deco carpet.

Extra facilities include a large plasma-screen television, surround sound and high-speed wifi, all discreetly serviced from a separate room, making it the ideal venue for business meetings as well as drinks receptions and private breakfasts, lunches and dinners.

The Lotos Room can accommodate meetings of up to 18 people, dining up to 45, theatre-style seating up to 45, and up to 60 for standing receptions. Drinks and canapés can also be served in the picture-hung lobby to guests as they arrive.

ENTERTAINING AT THE BEAUMONT

The versatility of the Lotos Room lends itself equally to family celebrations, a drinks or cocktail party or a wedding reception.

For private dining, The Beaumont offers complimentary menu printing, place cards, flowers, tea lights, music, audio-visual equipment, and of course fast wifi.

Optional extras can be arranged, including special flower arrangements by in-house florist Pulbrook and Gould, bespoke seating, candelabra, wedding cakes and a personal bartender.

THE LOTOS ROOM set up with a single long table seating up to 28 guests for breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea or dinner. This arrangement leaves ample room for drinks and canapés beforehand, with a separate drinks bar in the lobby.

THE LOTOS ROOM set up with separate round tables seating up to 45 guests for breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea or dinner, with a separate drinks bar in the lobby.

THE LOTOS ROOM set up for a drinks reception, for up to 60 guests, with a removable bar in the corner.

BUSINESS AT THE BEAUMONT

The Lotos Room is particularly suited for business meetings and seminars, being completely private, enclosed and adaptable, as well as being fully fitted with the latest audiovisual equipment for presentations and hybrid meetings.

The room has its own bespoke boardroom table, which seats up to 18 people, but can also be arranged for a theatre-style seminar for up to 45.

Ideal for all-day meetings, The Beaumont Daily Delegate Rate includes refreshment breaks, lunch, unlimited water, use of the AV equipment, flipcharts and meeting stationery.
