

THE BEAUMONT
MAYFAIR

Business Events

The Beaumont Mayfair

Overlooking a tranquil garden square in Mayfair, The Beaumont combines the comfort of a private club with the allure of the grand hotels of the Jazz Age.

The Beaumont offers three beautifully appointed rooms ideally suited for business meetings and events.

With Art Deco-inspired interiors by the world-renowned interior designer Thierry Despont, each has a different style and offers a range of alternative configurations, from board meetings to informal drinks parties or formal dinners.

Whether there are 10 or 60 guests, a dedicated organiser will be on hand to coordinate every aspect of your event, with menus created by the chefs of our renowned restaurant, The Colony Grill.

If you would like to find out more about any of our private rooms, please email us or give us a call on +44 (0)20 3728 7259.

BUSINESS EVENTS

Corporate gatherings in style

The Beaumont's private rooms are particularly suited for business meetings and seminars, being completely private, sleekly designed and versatile, as well as being fully fitted with the latest audiovisual equipment for presentations and hybrid meetings.

Appealingly adaptable

The Sargent Room and the Munnings Room are connected by a private lobby, enabling them to be combined for larger events, while the Sargent Room and the Lotos Room both have their own bespoke boardroom tables.

Well connected

Fully equipped with all the latest audiovisual technology, facilities include a large plasma-screen television, a Policom voice-tracking camera for hybrid events and video-conferencing, surround sound and high-speed Wi-Fi, all discreetly serviced from a separate AV room.

All day extras

The Beaumont Daily Delegate Rate includes refreshment breaks, lunch, unlimited water, use of the AV equipment, flip-charts and meeting stationery.

Group bookings

Stay as part of a business group of ten or more rooms and we will be delighted to provide specially designed rates. Please enquire when booking your event.

The Sargent Room

The natural choice

Enjoying natural daylight, the mahogany-panelled Sargent Room features a grand (removable) boardroom table, and dramatic paintings by Kees van Dongen and John Singer Sargent, along with a discreetly concealed plasma screen for presentations.

Located on the ground floor, the 69m² room can be configured with a hand-made boardroom table to seat 20 attendees, or as a banqueting room for up to 30 diners at three tables or 50 guests standing. The Sargent Room can be connected to the Munnings Room by a shared lobby, and serves well for drinks prior to dining in the Munnings Room, or as a breakout room for meetings.

The Munnings Room

Size and style

Our largest private dining room is lighter in style, with glamorous gold wall coverings. Perfect for both evening and daytime events, the Munnings Room has an equestrian theme, with paintings by Alfred Munnings and George Stubbs.

The 72m² room comfortably seats up to 40 guests at four tables or 60 guests standing. A 24-seater boardroom table is also available for business gatherings. The Munnings Room can be connected to the Sargent Room by a shared lobby and the two rooms are often used together.

The Lotos Room

Discreet and private

Luxuriously panelled in banded cherrywood and walnut, the Lotos Room is furnished with leather chairs and an imposing 18-seater boardroom table for meetings but is equally suited to drinks or dining.

Recently refurbished, the 68m2 room is hung with portraits of movie stars from the 1920s and 1930s by the renowned Hollywood photographer George Hurrell. With bespoke mahogany and walnut furniture, it is perfect for drinks for up to 60 people, or dining for 45 at separate tables, as well as presentations and seminars for up to 45.

Drinks and canapés can also be served in the picture-hung lobby to guests as they arrive.
