MORNING, NOON & NIGHT

(and everything in between)

The Brush is an all-day East London Grand Café, Lounge and Cocktail Bar taking inspiration from some of the best dishes across Europe including a classic French Onion Soup, Wiener Schnitzel, Moules-Frites, Alsace inspired flat breads to a Basque Cheesecake. The walls are adorned by murals created by London street artist Dean Stockton, better known as D*Face the signature artist at art'otel London Hoxton, his bold, rebellious and eye-catching style juxtaposes the traditional take on a Grand Café bringing The Brush's modern approach to life.

Open from breakfast through to dinner with a large al fresco terrace which can be used all year round. Don't miss our weekend brunch from 12-4pm, the perfect way to spend a leisurely afternoon.
