WELCOME

Set on a historic crescent that sits proudly at the top of Park Lane, steps from Hyde Park and the West End, with a toe in Marylebone, Montcalm Mayfair is a masterpiece of heritage and contemporary refinement. Housed within a Grade II-listed Georgian building, the hotel has undergone a visionary transformation that seamlessly blends its rich history with modern sophistication. At the heart of this evolution is sensitive luxury, a philosophy that embraces thoughtful design, sustainability, and immersive guest experiences. Inspired by The Mark Of The Garden, the hotel pays homage to its Georgian-era roots through botanical influences woven throughout its interiors, from lush green spaces to curated artworks and textures that celebrate nature's harmony.
