THE POGO FAMILY 2025

HELLO, HI

We won't lie, creating drinks and writing menus is pretty damn hard. Nottingham punches well above its weight in food and drink creativity, and we're constantly amazed by what we see and get to try around the city. That creativity is inspiring, but it also makes you realise just how much you don't know.

To be honest, when we were building our bar two years ago, we had no clue who we were and where we would fit in to the already amazing offering the city has and making those decisions was tricky. We had a list of around 400 bar names. Some of them were absolute trash. Like really bad.

From that chaos, we pogo-ed between everything. Then came the cliché lightbulb moment.

Here's to the people who change their minds, make good and bad decisions in equal measure, the folks who want everything and nothing at the same time. We now know that's exactly who we are and unapologetically so.

Love, the good family Pogo x
