WELCOME TO DOGETT'S COAT & BADGE

Welcome to Doggett's Coat & Badge, part of the Nicholson's Pub Collection, nestled along the scenic South Bank, paying homage to the rich legacy of Thomas Doggett and the historic London Bridge to Chelsea rowing race.

Originating in 1715, this esteemed event, now the oldest continuous sporting tradition in the UK, spans four miles and seven furlongs along the Thames, taking place every July. Thomas Doggett, the race's founder, bequeathed his legacy to The Fishmongers' Company in 1721, ensuring its enduring presence.

Situated strategically along the route of the race, our pub captures the spirit of this tradition, offering a unique and historic backdrop for events in London. Immerse yourself in the heritage of the Doggett's Coat & Badge pub as you create unforgettable moments in a setting steeped in history and charm.

THE ROOFTOP TERRACE BAR

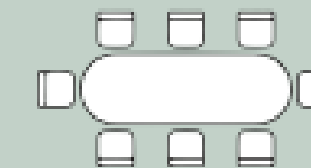

Ascend to our top floor, where you'll discover a beautiful bar and outdoor terrace that redefine the art of event hosting, boasting one of the most breathtaking views of the city skyline.

The Rooftop Terrace Bar is an idyllic setting that elevates your corporate events to unparalleled heights, adding a touch of awe-inspiring grandeur to any occasion. Whether you're planning a corporate gathering, product launch, or networking event, The Rooftop Terrace Bar provides a setting that effortlessly merges sophistication with the urban charm of London.

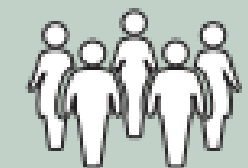

Indulge in a venue that not only offers a stunning visual feast but also provides unparalleled service and attention to detail. Elevate your corporate events at The Rooftop Terrace Bar, where the skyline becomes a part of your event's narrative, creating moments that resonate long after the occasion concludes.
