

The Emin Room at 34 Mayfair

The Emin Room is located above 34 Mayfair, on South Audley Street. The room houses specially commissioned art by celebrated artist Tracey Emin and is filled exclusively with her works, evolving as she adds one-off creations from tapestries to individual bronzes and upholstery, paintings and neons to the collection. An icon of our generation, Tracey Emin has been strongly involved with 34 Mayfair from its inception, from being present at the restaurant's launch in November 2011, to creating 34 Mayfair's famous 'doggy bags' (a striking pencil and water colour portrait of Roxy, Richard Caring's favourite Alsatian).

Accommodating up to 60 people for a seated lunch or dinner on six round tables or 36 on one long oval table, the room is suitable for a wide variety of private and corporate events – from wedding receptions, to birthday meals, presentations, book launches and networking events. Oak panelled walls, a rust and ebony coloured marble bar, deep vermillion leather chairs and the Tracey Emin collection makes this one of the most desirable private rooms in the area.

34 Mayfair's menu is mainly focused on a modern British approach to cooking. Head Chef, Harvey Ayliffe has created a selection of menus especially for The Emin Room. Seasonality plays a major part in the dishes at 34 Mayfair, and guests will be served a selection of seasonal game, vegetables, fish and meat from a series of carefully crafted menus. Seasonal vegetarian options are also available.

Punch

Punch originated from East India and was brought to England by sailors of the British East India Company in the early seventeenth century.

Punch is made with five ingredients and was created especially for the celebration of important events. To this day punch remains a convivial gesture and a great reception drink to share at a party.

At 34 Mayfair we have created four delicious punches specifically for The Emin Room.

Whilst many of the ingredients are very current, their diversity and variety of origin is in keeping with the eclectic nature of the original drink.
