Located in the iconic Holborn Town Hall, our elegantly designed restaurant offers the ideal dining space for any occasion. We offer three unique spaces perfect for working breakfasts, corporate dining, and all manner of celebratory occasions with friends and family.

The History:

Colonel Saab is a culmination of the journey and adventures of Colonel Manbeer Choudhary and his wife Binny. She collected recipes and an eclectic and priceless art collection including hand woven Persian carpets from the Silk route, Tanjore paintings from south India to palace doors from Rajasthan. Many of these items will feature in the restaurant and private dining rooms.

The Food:

The menu reflects a blend of tradition from street food to home style Indian cooking and dishes inspired by royal kitchens. We offer authentic Indian food with a contemporary twist for every palate and every occasion.

It also has an extraordinary private bar created by Asprey's of London for the Maharaja of Patiala in the 1920's.

For extra special occasions and larger parties, we are also able to offer exclusive hire of both rooms together. MemSaab can accommodate a standing reception for up to 60 people and for a seated breakfast, lunch or dinner will accommodate up to 26 guests on two tables.
