

A PUB OF TWO HALVES

THE GEORGE

UPSTAIRS AT

GEORGE

THE PUB

On the ground floor, we offer a quintessential British pub experience with 18th century, Grade II listed interiors. Traditional pub fare is served alongside craft beers, cask ales, an extensive spirit selection and seasonal cocktails.

UPSTAIRS AT THE GEORGE

Our first floor houses a refined Dining Room, an elegant English Sparkling Wine Bar, and a Private Dining Room. The quality of the food is held to the highest standard, with exceptional seasonal ingredients and provenance, reflecting the magical simplicity of classic pub food. Dishes are served alongside an extensive wine list of over 300 wines and aperitif style cocktails.

THE PUB

If pubs could talk, this one would have a lot to say. As a central hub for the political, cultural and social movements of the late 18th century, a home to writers and poets in the 20th century, and in recent years, a favourite haunt of locals and travellers alike, The George has seen it all.

The pub is available for exclusive hire, with additional options for semi-private use, and is wheelchair accessible.

UPSTAIRS AT THE GEORGE

Comprising three rooms, Upstairs at The George offers an elevated and elegant experience, with interiors paying homage to its former use as the grand Georgian living quarters of the pub's previous landlords. Original features include four Victorian fireplaces and large regency windows which overlook the hustle and bustle of Great Portland Street. This floor is available for exclusive hire, with each room also available to hire separately.

THE CADOGAN ARMS

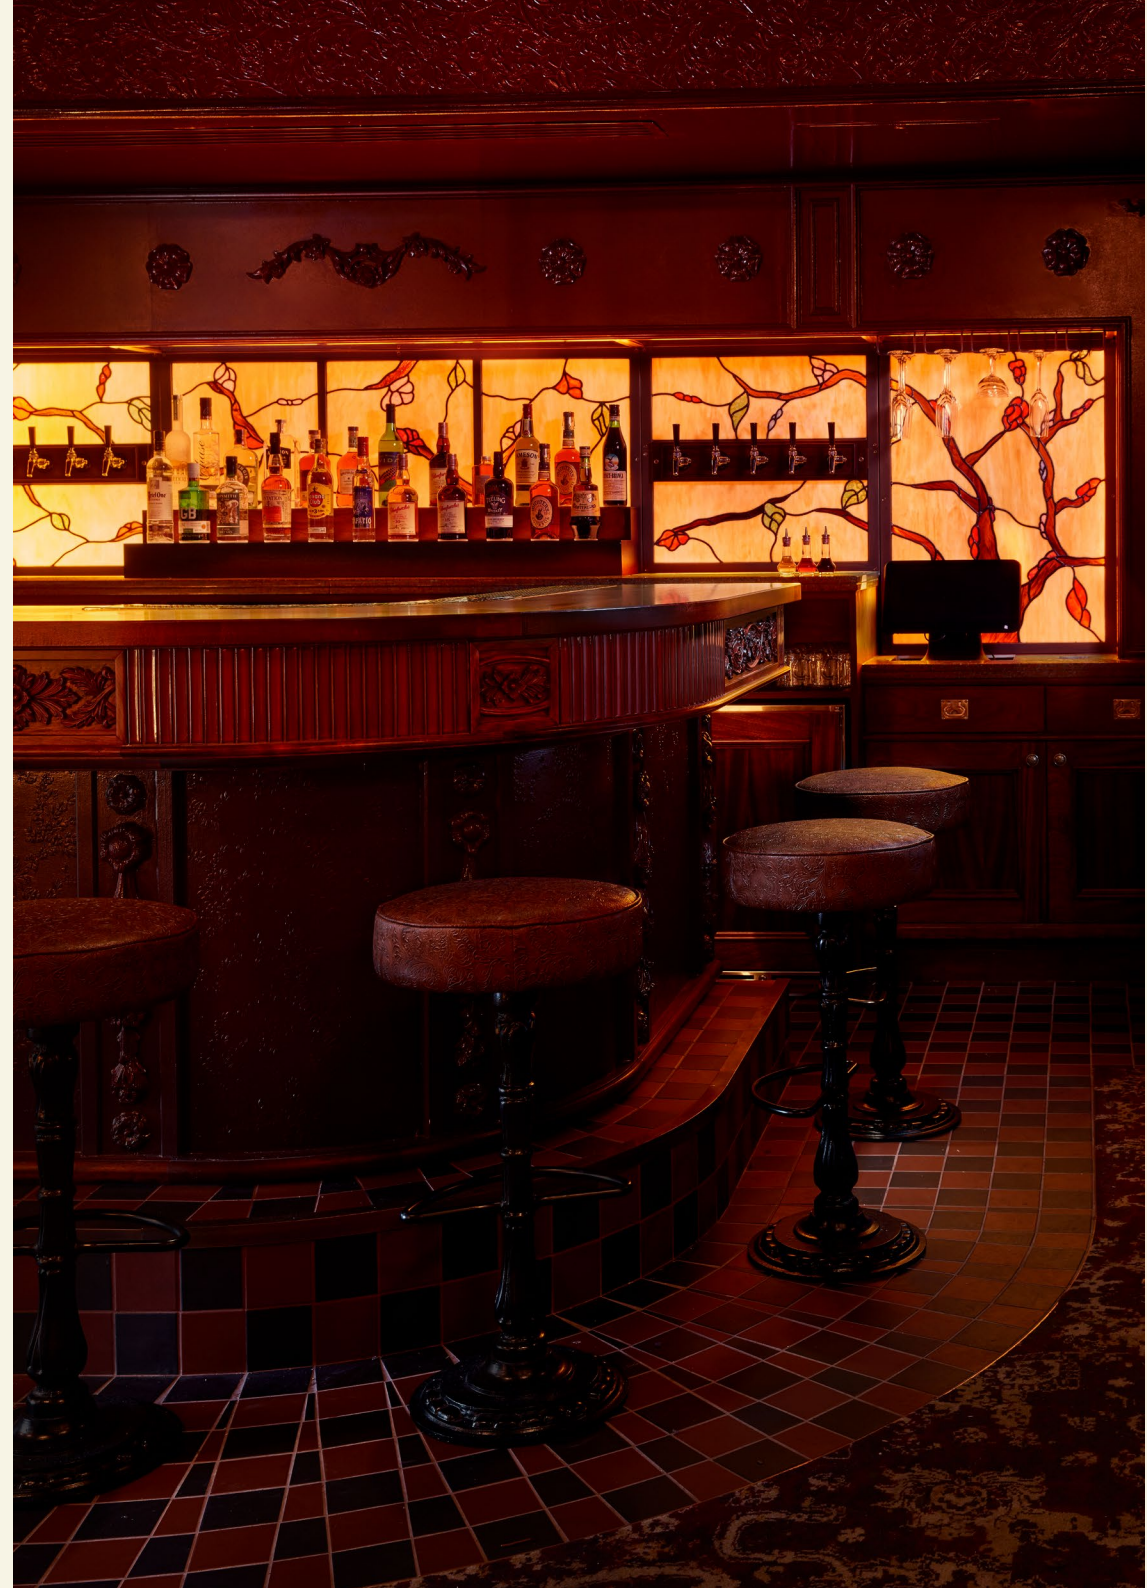

Located in the heart of Chelsea's bustling King's Road, the newly restored Cadogan Arms opened in 2021, with an ambitious renovation that pays homage to the public houses' two centuries spent serving the local community.

With capacity for up to 50 guests, The Cadogan Arms' private events space, The Rose Room, is equipped with a private horseshoe bar backed by a custom designed stained-glass wall, and two large meat ageing fridges which give extra tenderness and flavour to carefully sourced British beef.
