

LYLE'S

TEA BUILDING
56 SHOREDITCH HIGH STREET, E1 6JJ

LYLE'S

Located on the ground floor of the Tea Building in Shoreditch, Lyle's is a British restaurant with a produce driven menu.

The food changes throughout the year: vibrant and exciting in Spring and Summer, comforting and fortifying in Autumn and Winter.

ACCOLADES

In 2015 Lyle's won a Michelin star 18 months after opening, and was voted 38th in The World's 50 Best Restaurants 2018.

Lyle's is currently placed 7th at the National Restaurants Awards.

INTERIOR

The Lyle's interior is designed to reflect the aesthetics and history of the Tea Building: built in the 1940's by Thomas Lipton as a warehouse for tea and bacon.

The design is pared back and unpretentious to echo the restaurant's approach to food. It has been featured in lifestyle titles such as Wallpaper, Conde Naste Traveller and Cereal Magazine.

EVENTS

Lyle's launched its own in-house events programme in 2014 under the banners The Guest Series and Game.

In the last four years, we have invited over 40 international chefs from some of the world's best kitchens in Mexico City, Sydney, Newfoundland, Copenhagen, Singapore, New York City, Bangkok and more.

Both events have had extensive press coverage in both national and international media, including Gourmet Traveller, Time Out, The Independent, Observer Food Monthly and Jamie Magazine.

The largest table we can accommodate is for parties of up to 12, for larger bookings please contact events@lyleslondon.com to discuss an exclusive hire of the restaurant.
