The image shows the grand entrance of The Rubens hotel, heavily decorated for Christmas. The entrance features a large, ornate wooden double door with glass panels and a decorative brass handle. Above the door is a curved transom window with a decorative frame. The entire entrance is framed by a wide, curved overhang supported by dark wood. The overhang and the area around the door are adorned with lush greenery, red berries, and warm white lights. Two large potted plants, also decorated with red lights and greenery, stand on either side of the entrance. The interior of the hotel is visible through the glass doors, showing a well-lit lobby with a reception desk and other guests. The overall atmosphere is warm and festive.
