HOTEL AMANO COVENT GARDEN

When Berlin Meets London

The new boutique lifestyle hotel from Berlin-based hotelier, the AMANO Group, brings the cool and carefree spirit of Berlin to the capital, making it an exciting new destination for Londoners and visitors to discover.

Located in London's bustling Covent Garden, this new kid on the block is the first international destination from AMANO Group, which currently has 12 hotels including eight in Berlin and one in Munich. All AMANO properties have one overarching purpose: to enable their guests to enjoy beautifully designed spaces in the best city centre locations, and all at a fair price.

The new London hotel is a celebration of culture and city-life, with distinctive art and design features throughout from London-based design studio Woods Bagot. Formerly a 1980s office building known as Drury House, this 141-room property is the first of multiple AMANO hotels set to open in the capital.
