Be part of History

Built in 1906, this stunning Fire Station, now home to Yaatra Restaurant and Bar has a new purpose. To honour this association, we have a range of Cognac from 1906.

Imagine... these magical Cognacs were bottled before the 1st World War – and survived through the Second World War when London (including this Fire Station was so involved in this historical period putting fires out in the Blitz).

Winston Churchill bellowed to the Station Master on one night during this period of heavy bombing... to 'Save the Abbey Whatever You Do!'
So myth and legend has it that he that night celebrated with a glass of Cognac... maybe the same vintage... who knows??

Available by the glass – taste a little history.
