THE PELICAN

Welcome to The Pelican

Situated on Notting Hill's iconic All Saints Road, The Pelican is a meeting place for kindred spirits. Taking inspiration from the age old adage that a pub is an essential cornerstone of one's local community, The Pelican prides itself on being an extension of a wonderfully welcoming place to eat, drink, meet and more.

Minutes from Westbourne Park Station and visible from the Portobello Road, the pub is equidistant between vibrant Westbourne Grove and bustling Ladbroke Grove.

With a particular focus on British produce, The Pelican's seasonal menu is based on simple, wholesome food, done incredibly well.

With a casual and laid back atmosphere, we hope that locals will use our spaces as an extension of their own home.

The Pelican Room

Capacity for The Pelican Room is 30 seated or 45 people standing. Suitable for seated family feasts or canapé and cocktail gatherings, it is an intimate space sitting above our characterful pub and dining room.

Sash windows peering onto Tavistock Gardens flood the room with natural light, showcasing the restored flooring and original fireplace.

The hand crafted, private bar will keep guests well-watered, and makes for a stunning focal point. Subtly integrated AV equipment is on hand should it be required.
