CHAI WU EXCLUSIVE TEA

Da Hong Pao

(Big Red Robe)

Oolong Tea

£25

per person

Grown in the Wuyi Mountains, it is a heavily oxidized, dark oolong tea. According to legend, the mother of a Ming dynasty emperor was cured of an illness by a certain tea, and that emperor sent great red robes to clothe the four bushes from which that tea originated. This high grade oolong tea is handmade from tender leaves, withered, tumbled, curled and baked in small batches over charcoal to create an aromatic infusion with distinctive dark cocoa notes, a toasted, fruity flavour and a long smooth aftertaste.

2002 Bu Lang Mountain Raw Puer Tea

Raw Pu'er Tea

£30

per person

Grown in the high mountain at the altitude of 1500 meter, from the 200-300 years old ancient tea trees, the tea leaves are harvested in March 2002, and aged naturally.

The taste of the tea is very concentrated flavour for the first sip. It will remain complex, solid, intact body and character in the mouth for a long time with a very fruity flavour.

Jin Jun Mei

(Golden Beautiful Eyebrow)

Black Tea

£65

per person

A Lapsang Souchong black tea from Wuyishan City, Fujian Province, China. It is made from two small shoots plucked in early spring from the plant's stem which are subsequently fully oxidised to giving a tea that has a sweet fruity and flowery flavour with a long lasting sweet after-taste. The brew is bright reddish in colour. It is one of the most prestigious of all teas, with only 50kg was made each year
