

THE DEN

Welcome to The Den, a quintessentially British, oak-panelled snug at St Martins Lane London. The Den is tucked away off the lobby with grand sofa seating as well as intimate tables for two set in a warm and sophisticated décor. The space is perfect for afternoon tea and refreshing drinks at any time, as well as informal boardroom meetings for up to 20, receptions for up to 60, and private dinners for up to 40.

With tongue-in-cheek British flair, the award winning art on the walls animates the space with larger-than-life portraits and visual puns - a playful celebration of British eccentricity.
