CHOTE DISHOOM-WALLAS

In India, mealtimes are very much a family affair. Everything is shared, and the children eat (more or less!) what the grown-ups eat.

Here at Dishoom, younger guests are welcome to order from our main menu, just like the grown-ups. Our food is meant for sharing, after all. And we can always recommend milder dishes.

But if you prefer to keep things simple, we've put together this special menu with chote (little) Dishoom-wallas in mind. Smaller portions, very little spice, but just as nice.
