
The Evolution and Revolution of the Martini

Martinez16

Old Tom gin, sweet vermouth, Angostura bitters & maraschino cherry
The Martinez, regarded as the Martini's precursor, originated in the mid-19th century, laying the foundation for the modern classic to come.

50/50 Martini16

Equal parts gin/vodka & sweet/dry vermouth with a dash of orange bitters
In the late 19th and early 20th centuries, Martinis used equal parts gin & vermouth, reflecting the sweeter, more aromatic preferences of the time.

Perfect Martini16

Gin or vodka with both sweet & dry vermouth, garnished with a cherry
The Perfect Martini emerged in the early 20th century, using equal parts dry & sweet vermouth for a smooth, balanced bridge between rich & dry.

Dry Martini16

Gin/vodka with a rinse of dry vermouth, finished with a lemon twist or olive
The Dry Martini emerged in the early 20th century as tastes shifted to cleaner flavours, using less vermouth for a crisper style.

Dirty Martini16

Gin or vodka, an olive & its brine
The Dirty Martini, a savoury twist on the classic, adds olive brine for a salty flavour & look, created by inventive bartenders in the early 1900s.

Gibson Martini16

Gin or vodka, dry vermouth & a pickled silver onion
A crisp, savoury Martini variation, pairing gin/vodka with dry vermouth and a cocktail onion garnish for a clean, aromatic sip with gentle umami depth.

Vesper Martini16

Gin, vodka & quinine-heavy vermouth, shaken wet & finished with a twist
Immortalised by James Bond in Casino Royale, the Vesper offers a crisp, aromatic balance of botanicals and subtle citrus.

Signatures

Mezcaline16

Bold, spicy & smoky martini that combines Mezcal Verde, Ocho Tequila Blanco & Poblano Chili Liqueur for an intense burst of flavour: fiery, earthy, and unforgettable, with lingering heat & citrus undertones.

Floral16

Elderflower, chamomile, bergamot & cucumber bound together with black peppercorn complete the bouquet of this Plymouth Gin-based martini: delicate, complex, with floral brightness, herbal depth & a peppery finish

Green Tomato16

First we purée and clarify 5kg of red vine tomatoes to create a clear juice, which is then combined with our homemade horseradish & celery shrub & vodka mixed with Amontillado, tomato liqueur & ponzu sauce

Jasmine Blossom16

Another twist in the Gin Sour family, this particular one uses jasmine-perfumed green tea, gin, lemon & egg white elegant, aromatic & softly textured, with a floral lift & a silky finish

Quotidien16

"Daily" in French, the Quotidien is the combo of nutty Amontillado sherry, sweet lime falernum, orange bitters, and a boutique Rhum Agricole that brings herbaceous and grapefruit notes

Sautern' Punch16

Originating in the 17/1800s, milk punches are clarified with lactic acid, giving extreme smoothness to the final cocktail; ours is made with Sauternes, apricot, maraschino, orange bitters & Cuban rum

Bicycle Ride16

Take a refreshing ride with the low alcohol drink inspired by Italian aperitivo culture: Campari, Lillet Blanc, orange juice & tonic water. Perfect for long afternoons and easy, sociable summer sipping
