Making & breaking

The comfort and satisfaction I get from making and eating bread stems from a long journey with many memories along the way. To me, it means comfort, satisfaction, sharing, connection, love and of course the joy you receive from the actual eating of bread.

Full of beans

(beans, peach, almond)

My mother used to say that I was always full of beans. An energetic and lively child, it goes without saying that nothing has changed! This dish is packed with an array of seasonal beans providing bags of energy.

Tastes like chicken

(chicken, aubergine, daterini tomato)

A phrase we've all heard far too many times when someone tastes something unusual! In this instance, we really do hope it tastes like chicken. We slow age our Sladedown Farm chickens to create a tender, more succulent meat.

Pick 'n' eat

(strawberry, sticky rice, Thai basil)

As a child, I remember the first taste of summer with beautiful, sweet strawberries laid out in long rows ready to be picked, filling your basket as much as you like, or in my case, my mouth! Sweet summer memories of family outings are forever embedded, and we hope this dish leaves you with your own memory, with an Asian twist.
