

Wine List

Our journey in wine starts and ends in France. The limestone slopes, gravel terraces, chalk plains, and sunburnt shorelines are a source of inspiration for winemakers worldwide. We take many detours to countries beyond its borders in an exploration of terroirs both classic and rarely seen.

Whether in Piedmont or Napa Valley, Santiago or Syracuse, the culture of wine is in ferment and our wine list captures the spirit of endeavour amongst winemakers. Whether organic or biodynamic, low intervention, or sustainably farmed, a passion to protect the environment underlies the selection.

Salut!

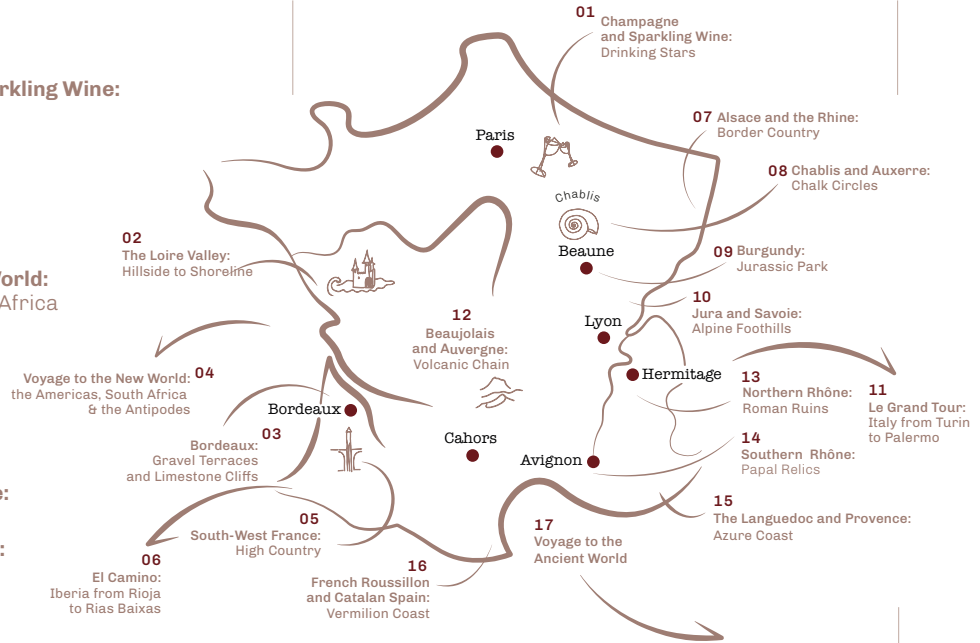

Mon enfant, ma soeur,
Songe à la douceur
D'aller là-bas vivre ensemble!
Aimer à loisir,
Aimer et mourir
Au pays qui te ressemble!

Champagne Philipponnat

The Philipponnat family have been cultivating vines around the town of Mareuil-Sur-Aÿ since 1522, and six centuries later the house is presided over by Charles Philipponnat.

Clos des Goisses

Philipponnat has owned an exceptional walled vineyard, the Clos des Goisses, for nearly a century. In the old Champagne dialect the name of this 5.5 hectare plot means a very steep slope. It is also the warmest terroir of the region: facing due south, this pure chalk slope receives no shade from sunrise to sunset. It is considered the most consistently great single vineyard wine in all of Champagne.

Valley of the Loire Hillside to Shoreline

White chalk soils are the signature of central France and the vineyards of Sancerre are some of the most famous planted on these calcified fossil remains. As France's longest river turns west at Orléans the Loire continues its lazy 629 mile journey to the Atlantic, passing the tuffeau chalk caves of Vouvray, until granite soils take over at the sea swept coast of Muscadet.

Bordeaux Gravel Terraces and Limestone Cliffs

Straddling the estuary of two of France's most important rivers, Bordeaux proves that you don't need to be born great to achieve greatness. The transition from low lying marshland to noble vineyard was slow, yet the combination of gravel, the temperate climate, and sustained investment, has made Bordeaux wines the touchstone for reliability, longevity and sheer class they are today.

Clos Dubreuil, St Emilion Grand Cru Classé

A rising star of Saint Emilion that cemented its cult status when it was promoted to grand cru classé. Clos Dubreuil started with 1.5 hectares in 1998, and the property has been gradually enlarged to 8.8 hectares under the watchful eye of the Eads family who have a long, rich history with French wines. Composed of 70% Merlot, 25% Cabernet Franc and 5% Cabernet Sauvignon, the wine is fermented under the expert eye of Alain Reynaud, one of the region's most sought after winemakers, and is aged in new French oak.

We have an unparalleled collection of vintages and large formats direct from the estate's cellars.

Voyage to the New World

The Americas,
South Africa
& the Antipodes

Around the middle of the nineteenth century French winemakers started to notice that their vineyards were dying. The cause was soon identified as the phylloxera aphid which had been imported by accident along with a consignment of American vine cuttings. The destroyer, as it became known, had a devastating impact that was felt all over Europe, forcing bankrupt families to flee to other parts of the world. Although vines may be grafted to allow them to continue producing grapes, phylloxera remains a global problem with no cure, and this section of the list pays homage to those who pioneered winemaking in the new world.

South-West France The High Country

The river Garonne and its tributaries the Tarn and the Lot are the life blood of the high country upstream of Bordeaux. From the plateau of central France to the peaks of the Pyrenees, the river system cuts a course through a magical landscape of ancient forests, gravel terraces and weathered limestone cliffs. Wines of a distinctly local and lively personality are produced with many unique grape varieties.

El Camino

Iberia from Rioja to Rias Baixas

The scallop shell is a symbol of the Camino pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostella where the relics of the apostle St James reside. Those starting their journey in France enter Spain from St Jean Pied de Port on the edge of the Pyrenees, and make their way to Galicia via some of the country's most famous vineyards. Sharing a border with Portugal, this rugged corner of Europe is called the country of a thousand rivers. It is remarkable for its steep valleys, and fjord-like coastline.

Alsace and the Rhine Border Country

A patchwork of vineyards in the rain shadow of the gentle Vosges mountains, Alsace is exceptionally sunny, and is home to an impressive collection of grape varieties, soil types, and truly gastronomic wines.

Domaine Weinbach

The history of Weinbach is the history of Alsace itself, stretching back to 1612 when Capucin monks laid the first stone on their 'little wine river' as the name translates. The estate is perfectly sited at the foot of the magnificent Schlossberg Grand Cru, one of the finest vineyards of all Alsace, and in which they have significant holdings of old vines. It makes electric dry Riesling, but also the confidential Pinot Noir 'S'. A rare delight. Certified biodynamic for many years now, the wines of Weinbach are timeless.

A reef of old oyster beds where the sea is a memory many millions of years old is where the Chardonnay grape becomes a mineral essence. It is hardly surprising then that the combination of oysters and Chablis is so compelling.

In the wider Auxerre region some delightful Pinot Noir is made, and the historic appellation of St Bris offers a unique expression of Sauvignon Blanc outside the Loire.

Domaine Albert Grivault Meursault, Côte de Beaune, Burgundy

Albert Grivault captures the essence of Burgundy unadulterated by fashion, and like many of the best domaines that have stood the test of time, little has changed here since its inception, and the approach is refreshingly simple. Only five wines are made, and of those only one red, the magnificent Pommard Clos Blanc. Meursault, and especially the Clos des Perrières, a walled monopole within the premier cru Les Perrières, is the jewel in the crown of the 140 year old Grivault estate. With vines inside and outside Clos des Perrières one has the rare treat of being able to compare two terroirs within Meursault's finest premier cru appellation side by side. Close to the old cellar you will find the Clos des Murgers, another walled vineyard, which includes a not be missed Bourgogne from declassified Meursault vines.

The sherry-like vin jaune is by law aged for six and a half years under a protective veil or voile of native yeasts, and develops a complex, nutty character, reminiscent of walnut. It is bone dry and lightly oxidative. The combination with the local Comté cheese is one of the world's greatest food and wine matches.

10

Jura & Savoie Alpine Foothills

Leaving Burgundy heading eastwards towards the Alps, limestone starts to mix with glacial deposits, especially in the higher altitude vineyards of Savoie and its ski resorts. To the north, Franche-Comté is a mirror of Burgundy with its clay limestone soils and celebrated Comté cheese which pairs so well with the local vin jaune. Nestled between the two, the Jura offers a thrilling mix of tradition and discovery with its incense-like reds and nutty, mineral whites.

Le Grand Tour Italy from Turin to Palermo

An appreciation of Antiquity and the Renaissance was an essential part of a privileged education, and the grand tour included the marvels of Venice, Florence and Rome amongst many other great European cities. Following in the footsteps of St James' Regency high society our armchair tour takes in some of Italy's most compelling wines. From the mountain highs of the Austrian border to the slopes of Mount Etna this grand tour is open to all.

13 Northern Rhône Roman Ruins

The Rhône river enters France from Switzerland and carves a passage through the tough granite cliffs, bending dramatically where it cannot penetrate the dense bedrock. The vineyards, often on perilously steep cliffs and terraces, represent no more than 10% of the total Rhône output, yet have captured the hearts of winelovers and collectors to such an extent that they are increasingly hard to come by.

Southern Rhône Pape Relics

Plunging south from Montélimar, the Rhône enters a different terrain: a broad flood plain composed of mixed soils of sand, clay and limestone that supports a wealth of grape varieties. Nearly 95% of the wines are red and based on the Grenache grape, which conveys the heady wild herb scents and ripe fruit flavours of the south so easily. These are generous, gourmand wines.

Languedoc & Provence Azure Coast

Vines cover the hills in a swathe hugging the coastline and invading the rugged hillsides of the Midi. In the Languedoc grapes fight for space with olive groves, wild scrub and rock, while around the glamorous towns of Aix, St Tropez and Cannes vines are in a constant battle with property developers for space. Nearby Corsica, Île de Beauté, is a home from home for the seafaring gentry. Famous for its pale rosés the region offers distinctive reds and whites too.

Where the Pyrenees sweep down to the Mediterranean the charming port towns of Collioure and Banyuls-sur-Mer are the jewels of a rugged coastline dotted with vineyards of old vines eking out meagre yields in dry schist soils. This tiny, little explored region of France was for centuries part of Catalan Spain and its identity remains strongly rooted in that language and culture. Across the border exciting wines are made from Empordà down to the dramatic hillsides of Priorat near Barcelona. On both sides of the border the wines are rich yet crammed with a thrilling mineral freshness.

Voyage to the Ancient World

While the modern wine world turns its gaze to France for inspiration, France learnt its craft from the ancient wine cultures of the east, and especially those merchants of the Mediterranean who brought amphorae from distant lands. Our voyage to the ancient world is a flight of fancy, exploring the legacy of wine cultures with deep and lasting roots that are once again resurgent.
