White Wines

Dry, Fruity, Elegant

These wines express a simple purity. From the brilliant lime-zesty Verdicchio and the crisp, citrus flecked Albarino to the more elegant Gavi and (friendly) Gruner. These wines match any kind of seafood, but also have the personality to cut through dips and fried food.

Riesling Reserve, Domaine Andre Scherer 2012 - Alsace, France		28.95
Gavi "La Fornace", Bergaglio 2012 - Piedmont, Italy	9.95	37.95

Aromatic Sauvignon

This popular grape variety offers a different experience, dependent on where in the world it is grown. With its intense aromas & crunchy freshness works beautifully with salads, dips and grilled fish.

Sauvignon Blanc, Casa Azul 2013- Rapel Valley, Chile	6.95	27.95
Sauvignon de Touraine, Domaine Guy Allion 2013 - Loire, France		28.95

Luscious, Rich, Full-Flavoured

Chardonnay-dominated with Chenin & Semillon in support. Mouth filling, structured and often quite complex, these wines have sufficient weight to accompany fish, chicken, and even take a little spice.

Red Wines

Full Flavoured and Spicy Mediterranean Reds

Comprising of mainly Rhone style (Syrah/Shiraz & Grenache) as well as Tempranillo from Rioja and Sangiovese from Chianti. These are warm, savoury, peppery wines that go well with slow cooked dishes.

Pinot Noir & Light, Fruity Reds

Pinot can be delicate or intense, but is always fruity and perfumed. Gamay and Freisa are less aromatic, however share the red fruit character. Wines in this section go well with chicken and grilled fish.

Wine is one of the most civilised things in the world and one of the most natural things of the world that has been brought to the greatest perfection, and it offers a greater range of enjoyment and appreciation than, possibly any other purely sensory thing.

Ernest Hemingway
