The Loch and the Tyne was created because of Adam's love for Chef-Proprietor Steven Kerr.

Steven is the longest standing chef in the group - he has been by Chef Adam's side for over 19 years. The name actually comes from where he first met him.

Steven (Tyne) first started working for Adam over 19 years ago, in Newcastle.

As cheesy (like our doughnuts) as it sounds, Adam loves the ocean and the fact that the road can lead to anywhere. This represents Adam's relationship with Steven because, as long as he is on the water (The Loch & the Tyne), he'll be linked to him.

This isn't just because they'll always be working together but because they have built up a friendship and now they are really family.

We hope you enjoyed the story about why we're called The Loch & the Tyne and we hope that you'll love your meal.

Don't forget - we have bedrooms upstairs, if you really want to start exploring our incredible wine list. Safety first and, even more of a reason, breakfast is included in the room price.
